

Interested in the Master of Public Health Program?

	PROGRAM WEBSITE: Find detailed information on degree requirements, courses and FAQs for prospective students on the MPH Program website.
	GRAD MAP: Why study public health at Queen's? What will you learn? How will you build skills and experience across the degree? See the MPH Grad Map.
	MPH STUDENTS AND ALUMNI: Interested in our students and where they end up? See profiles of our current students, and alumni employment roles.
	PRACTICUM: The MPH includes a 400-hour practicum, where students put course-based knowledge and skills into practice with a public health host organization. See more information on the practicum including examples of previous practicum sites.
	COST: Find details about tuition and fees from Registrar and Financial Services. Scroll down to the "Medicine" heading for the MPH table.
	APPLYING TO THE MPH PROGRAM: We typically receive about 300 applications a year and accept approximately 45 students. See more information about admission requirements and how to apply.
	DEADLINE DATES: Application deadline is January 31st
	QUESTIONS? Email us at: MPHadmin@queensu.ca